WHARF AND WAVE.

The O. & O. S. S. Belgic, W. H. Walker, commander, arrived in port Wednesday morning, 11 days, 12 hours and 57 minutes from Yokohama. Purser Fulcher reported having experienced moderate easterly winds throughout the voyage. She brought 136 tons of cargo and 54 Chinese steerage passengers for this port. Forty-four of the Chinese were allowed to land at the quarantine depot, while nine were not permitted to land, as they did not possess proper permits. It took Collector-General Castle, Port Surveyor Sanders, Chinese interpreter Li Cheung, and customhouse clerk Woods four solid hours to examine the photographs and the return permits of the fifty-four Chinese passengers. The questions and cross-examinations made by the examining officers to the Chinese were very thorough. The examination was of so pointed a nature that those who had false permits, and who perhaps had never before set foot on Hawaiian soil shook and trembled in their shoes. The Chinese through passengers made a thriving business during their stay of about nine hours in port, selling canaries, mocking birds, etc., to eager buyers. The prices for canaries ranged from $1 to $2.50, according to their singing abilities. After landing 136 tons of Chinese merchandise, the Belgic resumed her voyage to San Francisco a little after 4 o'clock.

The Mariposa came up from Samoa in six days and twenty-one hours. It is considered very fast
